DETAILED ACTION

Priority

This application is a divisional of 10/032,392 12/21/2001 and the claim of foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. § 119(a)-(d) to India 1124/MAS/2000 12/26/2000 is acknowledged.

Status of Claims

Claims 1-20, 31-56 are currently pending in the application.

Receipt is acknowledged of amendment / response filed on October 18, 2004 and that has been entered.

Claims 8-20, 32-34, 36-40, 47, 48, 55 and 56 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.142 (b) as being drawn to a non-elected subject matter.

Response to Election/Restriction

In response to the restriction requirement, Applicants have elected Group I, which includes claims 1-7, 31, 35, 41-46 and 49-54 drawn to a compound and composition with traverse is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that all the pending claims should be rejoined and examined with the elected Group I because "it is common for US patents to include claims for compounds, process for preparing the compound and methods of using the compounds in a single patent" (Remarks, page 3) and therefore a search and examination of the entire Markush group should be made without serious burden.

The Examiner respectfully disagrees with the Applicants because the products of Invention groups I-VI differ materially in structure and in element from each other and therefore, are capable of supporting their own patents. The invention groups I-VI are related to a set of structurally diverse compounds, process for preparing and their methods of use (chemical structures, which are similar, are presumed to function similarly, whereas chemical structures that are not similar are not presumed to function similarly), which do not possess a substantial common core wherein a reference anticipating one would not necessarily render the other obvious and to search all the above groups in a single application would be an undue burden on the Examiner. Because of many classes and subclasses in each of the Group, a separate search considerations are involved, which would impose a serious burden on the Examiner to perform a complete search of the defined areas if unrestricted. Also the fields of search are not coextensive. The wide disparity among the groups requires that many divergent fields must be searched, including all classes and subclasses of U.S. and foreign patents as well as journals and publications. Moreover, the Examiner must perform a commercial database search on the subject matter of each group in addition to a paper search, which is quite burdensome to the Examiner. However, Examiner may reconsider to rejoin method of use claims (Groups III and IV) commensurate in scope with the product claims when the case would be found in condition for allowance [provided those method claims are free from 35 U.S.C. §112 first (including written description, reach-through claim language and/or scope-enablement issues) and second paragraphs]. For these reasons, Applicant's arguments are found unpersuasive and, therefore, the requirement for restriction and election of species is still deemed proper.

Applicants preserve their right to file a divisional on the non-elected subject matter.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 1626

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-7, 31, 35, 41-46 and 49-54 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting, as being unpatentable over claims 1-87 of co-pending Application No. 10/613,414. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both sets of claims are drawn to the same art recognized subject matter. This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented. The compounds taught by co-pending application are similar to instant application because a reference anticipating one set of claims will render the other obvious and it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made since Selvakumar et al teach the generic compounds and compositions which are similar to the instantly claimed compounds and compositions. The disclosure of Selvakumar et al that teach many combinations (including various substitutions, such as Z represents O, S, =CH, -CH<sub>2</sub> or NR<sup>b</sup>), which would easily place Applicants invention in possession of the public at the time of Applicants invention was filed. Therefore, in the instant case, one skilled in the chemical art would be motivated to choose to replace variable substitutions (such as R<sup>1</sup> is NHR<sup>4</sup> or Z is NR<sup>b</sup>) in core heterocyclic ring in view of the known teaching of the art. The claimed compounds are so closely related structurally to the homologous and /or analogous compounds of the reference as to be structurally obvious therefore in the absence of any unobviousness or unexpected properties. Moreover, any other differences are but obvious structural modifications, which would be apparent to one skilled in the chemical art that can use similar substitutions, would expect to have the same or essentially the same results. Therefore, in looking at the instant claimed compounds as a whole, the claimed compounds would have been suggested to one skilled in the art unless unobvious or unexpected results can be shown.
